is this really lisa?

hahaha! it is you! i am honoured to be your fb friend! you are the coolest dem on the planet! they need to all be as tough as you...and you are damn funny! keep fighting for the sane people in this country!

how insane is she? who needs social security, medicare or education? if this wacko wins my state i swear i will have to move! she may be dumber than plain! and that is tough to find!

August 14th 2010

so give me the insider dope. are people buying what she is selling? do you and i have to kick a little gop ass?

August 19th 2010

idiots i work with love this stupid bch! i ask them all if they will be turning down their social security and medicare...let's kick some gop ass! i hate them!

ok, you and me will suit up like superheroes and defeat them. what will we call ourselves?

you are too funny! we could be the jew.o.p! what will we wear?

September 17th 2010

i like this cute new pics of you! when r you coming to vegas to help me beat up the right wing crazies?

this is my "pull my finger" shot. glad you like. i'm ready for a vegas trip. truth telling during the day. got a night plan for us?

haha..that was a very loaded questions! i've got all kinds of night plans for us! when are you coming?

dunno. make me an offer i can't refuse.

to get us in the mood. first we watch back to back episodes of the daily show and colbert report...then, to really spice things up we go deface all of my neighbor's sharon angle yard signs...then when we are really hot we go to the bookstore and cover all of the glen beck books with copies of "the audacity of hope!"...i do this about once a week (you can tell i am a very exciting girl!)...or if this i not your thing, we can just get drunk and have mad, passionate sex!

why choose? with me behind you can't we both watch daily show?

Hhaha! see...you are always thinking! you are so right...aahhh the perfect liberal evening!

i hear liberal girls are very, uh, accommodating of others
